Over one hundred Greenlee RDB inground fixtures lit the majestic royal palm trees lining the main entrance to The Breakers resort for years. As with most inground HID well lights, servicing them was a nuisance and the energy consumption was not negligible.

LSI’s Crossover LED inground fixtures offered an opportunity to virtually eliminate the need for maintenance and to dramatically reduce their energy costs. In addition to these savings, the LED light source delivered significantly better lighting with consistent color.